*In 2014, a Stanford University study found that out of 1,700 active breweries surveyed, only 4% had a female head brewer or brewmaster. However, women have long held influential roles in all aspects of beer making. They were the principal brewers for centuries and, were responsible for introducing hops to the malty brew. Today, with the Northwest craft beer renaissance, more and more women are taking the lead at local breweries as brewers, bottlers, sales people and owners. Through this event, we will highlight women's historic role in beer and discuss how women are shaping today's craft beer resurgence. For example, Seattle's Stoup Brewing co-owner, Robyn Schumacher, is an owner, brewer, taproom manager and, since passing the test in 2012, a certified cicerone — the first-ever female cicerone in Washington state. Here, we will feature Heather McClung, Owner/Manager of Schooner EXACT Brewing Company. Dear Ms. Good-Cohn,

The Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN) invites you to join us for a 1.5 day delegation trip to Seattle, Washington, taking place October 9-11, 2017. We plan to leave for Seattle on Monday morning, October 9 (Columbus Day) to begin programming in the afternoon. Events will continue through the evening, and the next day, concluding on the evening of October 10. You will depart Seattle before lunchtime, Wednesday, October 11, returning to Washington D.C before 10:00 PM EST.

Although we are in the early planning stages, we will confirm policy discussions and site visits with companies at the forefront of innovation, as well as with female leaders in communications, and other senior executives working on issues related to telecommunications, on-demand economy, trade, and privacy. Your work on these topics and active participation in our discussions will be a great asset to our delegation, which will include senior staff from both Republican and Democratic Senate offices.

As you know, GlobalWIN was founded in 2009 as an educational, nonpartisan 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. With honorary co-chairs Congresswoman Martha Roby and Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz, GlobalWIN provides a dynamic forum for women executives and thought leaders in academia, government, and business who are passionate about innovation and its potential to advance critical policy issues. GlobalWIN is dedicated to helping women in these fields and related policy debates by providing opportunities to: 1) recognize their contributions to innovation and related policy debates; 2) share their views & engage publicly; 3) access resources that might not otherwise be readily available to accomplish these objectives; 4) broaden their network across areas of expertise and beyond our borders.

GlobalWIN offers to cover your travel and meal expenses related to the trip, in compliance with the rules under Senate ethics laws. GlobalWIN has a record of successful Congressional Staff delegation trips, including House Staff trips to London in 2013, Brussels in 2014, Dublin in 2015, NYC in 2016, and London again this year and a Senate Staff trip to NYC in 2016.

To ensure timely submission of ethics materials to the appropriate committees by Friday, September 8, please at your earliest convenience if you are interested in participating on the trip by calling our office at 202-548-0021 or sending an email to smamula@helenmilby.com.

Sincerely,

Helen Milby
Executive Director, GlobalWIN

Sarah Mamula
